Contemporary Retreat with Entertainer's Dream Backyard!

Welcome to 61 Piccone Drive, Edmonton. A contemporary retreat on a large 737sqm block, offering a seamless blend of modern comforts and tropical tranquillity in an ideal family location.

This beautifully designed home features four spacious bedrooms, each with built-in robes, including a master suite complete with an ensuite bathroom.

The versatile layout offers a media room and open-plan living areas that flow effortlessly to the outdoors. At the heart of the home is the kitchen, equipped with stainless steel appliances and ample bench space, perfect for family gatherings and entertaining.

Step outside to discover a tropical paradise – a large outdoor entertainment area with a covered patio, a thatched-roof Balinese hut, spa, outdoor shower and lush established gardens.

The property also provides a large powered shed for added storage or workspace and a fully fenced yard with plenty of room for children and pets to play safely.

With ample parking, including remote entrance to a 3-car garage with additional covered parking for two vehicles under a shade sail. Side access through a remote sliding gate for a boat, caravan or trailer.

Perfectly positioned in Edmonton, you're just moments away from Sugarworld Shopping Centre, medical facilities, public and private schools, daycare centres, Sugarland Waterpark and parklands and local sporting facilities.

Do not hesitate - contact Nick Moller today to inspect the property.
