Prime location

Known as one of Tighes Hill's most sought after locations, Henry Street offers all the best aspects of living this wonderfully regenerated suburb. Situated on approximately 400m² parcel of land sits this well-loved family home which has maintained much of its original charm and period features.

As you enter this inviting property you will be delighted with all that this property has to offer. Featuring three spacious bedrooms rooms with high ceilings. There is a separate lounge room and dining/kitchen area that leads to an undercover deck area and flat secure well maintained back yard. In addition to this, there is off street parking with vehicle access to the back yard.

Tighes Hill certainly offers you a unique lifestyle; located on the edge of Islington Park, an ideal location for picnics, exercising, pets and children.

Cycling tracks take you directly to Carrington, Wickham, Honeysuckle, and Hamilton. A short distance to highly regarded schools, Throsby Waters coffee shops and an array of shopping options.

This home deserves your immediate attention.
