MAGIC VIEWS, GREAT AREA & ONE-OF PROPERTY

Whether investors, professionals or a family, this highly-desirable customised property hits the mark from the views to the location, quality, spacious split-level home, outdoor living and easy-care cul-de-sac lot.

North-facing and framing beautiful vistas spanning the hinterland, Mt Martin to King George Sound, Torndirrup National Park and Bald Head, this property is destined to draw keen interest from genuine buyers.

It is only a short walk from schools, medical hubs and shops and central to the beach and downtown Albany, which also makes it ideal for hospital staff accommodation.

The property enjoys an elevated, quiet position and features a drive-thru double garage, space for a caravan or boat, and a shed, vegie beds and more.

The focal point beyond the home's entry is a tremendous coffered ceiling lounge, with a feature wood fire plus the convenience of a gas heater and access to all wings.

Steps flow up to the view-filled kitchen and dining zone overlooking the enticing alfresco, and access to the private master sanctuary.

If you can tear yourself away from the views for long enough, the kitchen will meet all your needs, with excellent storage, benchtops, cooking appliances and a dishwasher included.

Private and inviting, the rear master wing has magic views and a walk-in robe and separate toilet ensuite.

Back off the lounge is the spacious front sunlit family wing. The kids will have their very own activity room, and robes and views from their bedrooms. The hall and laundry near the powder room and bathroom also feature storage.

Embrace the lifestyle or tap into the investment potential.
