PROMINENT LARGE HOME ON CORNER BLOCK IN ELITE ESTATE OF STRETTON

A home of grand stature with stunning street appeal. This large-scale, two storey home offers incoming owners a sublime setting coupled with security, privacy, and abundant space over a manicured 709 sqm land site.

This contemporary designed home gives you the lifestyle and set up you've been waiting for. An expansive floorplan provides numerous living and entertainment spaces with premium finishes that are ideal for a family to flourish. Featuring both indoor and outdoor areas plus up to five bedrooms and two bathrooms, it can accommodate a growing family with ease.

The gated driveway entry and full perimeter fencing around the corner block provides a safe garden area that has soft landscaping and expansive lawns with wrap around to the huge backyard complete with covered patio that extends into the open-air making it perfect for entertainment during night or daytime. A wide paved driveway and matching pedestrian path creates an attractive entrance to the home which is fully rendered with tiled roof.

A statement portico entry flows into the generous and well-planned home that has inviting decor and presents with high ceilings, air conditioning, tiled and carpeted flooring, security screens and alarm system.

Central to the functional design are the numerous living spaces, which include a formal lounge and dining area that is ideal for adult entertainment and quiet downtime being located at the front of the house. Followed by a spacious and ultra-comfy, air-conditioned media room, and the generously proportioned open plan living and eating areas that are designed for relaxed mealtimes and casual gathering. Your clan will spend lots of time in this huge zone that is bright and airy with plenty of natural breeze and light from the multiple windows and doors.

A superbly planned, gourmet kitchen offers a wonderful social set up with a dining bar for seating and ample bench space for meal preparation. Showcasing smooth bench tops with sleek quality cabinetry it is both practical and stylish. It has tons of storage space with a big pantry, and it is fitted with quality appliances including freestanding gas stove and a decent fridge cavity.

Step outside to the wonderful alfresco garden and covered patio area which extends and overlooks the low maintenance yard that has a lush and tropical look. Fenced and private, this big patio area is great for all your outdoor entertainment needs.

To the very rear of the home is a dual-use office or guest bedroom, it has a built-in cupboard handy for any extra storage, a/c and a garden view.

Upstairs features another cozy and big lounge room which is great for kids to utilize or want to get some space from each other. There are three junior bedrooms on this level, all with their robe storage that have access to a neatly appointed shared bathroom with adjoining WC.

The master takes pride of place and offers a wonderous retreat with a dedicated area for your own lounge set up or study in addition to room for a super-king bed. It has private access to a front balcony and offers a personal ensuite comprising a tidy vanity with two sinks, separate shower and the room includes a walk-in robe.

Situated in the '888 Parks' estate, it's conveniently located for getting around. Close to Stretton College and childcare centres, parks, bus stops and motorway nearby, plus a wide variety of shopping centres at Sunnybank Hills and Calamvale which are a few minutes' drive away.
