Unwind in Tranquility: Private and Peaceful 4 Bedroom Home

Sam Conlen and Tara Witham are excited to introduce this tranquil haven at 7 Red Road, Blackwood - a beautifully maintained four-bedroom family home tucked away in the lush, serene landscape of Blackwood. This delightful retreat offers the perfect blend of privacy, peace, and understated elegance, all just a stone's throw from the vibrant energy of everyday life.

Built in 1988, this charming home boasts timeless appeal in a close-knit community. With its generous grounds, the property hints at an entertainer's dream waiting to be explored. The flexible floor plan invites a variety of lifestyles, each infused with warmth and comfort.

Step inside to discover a harmonious flow of well-defined spaces, where multiple living areas seamlessly connect. The open-plan design creates a serene atmosphere, enhanced by beautiful timber floors that add a rustic touch to the modern aesthetics.

Bask in the abundant natural light that pours through large windows and skylights, creating an inviting ambiance for everyday living. The modern kitchen is a chef's delight, featuring an open layout, breakfast bar, dishwasher, and gas cooktop-perfect for culinary adventures with family and friends.

Your kids will enjoy the cozy cubby house, while the tidy gardens and inviting pergola are perfect for relaxed afternoons. Picture hosting barbecues in this welcoming space, creating lasting memories with family and friends.

Located just a short stroll from the sprawling Blackwood Forest Recreation Park, you'll enjoy easy access to prestigious schools, the bustling Blackwood shopping precinct, and delightful cafes and bakeries-everything you need for a convenient and fulfilling lifestyle.

What we love:
