Sun-soaked, Renovated And Ready For You

Located in a peaceful yet convenient cul-de-sac that's walkable to all your daily needs, this rambling residence has been reinvigorated from front to back while still maintaining its traditional charm. Pretty and pristine, this single level home with dual living spaces is fit for family and ready for you.

Under soaring wood lined ceilings that ooze character, the home is thoughtfully laid out to harness lavish light from north, east and west while wrapping around gardens that provide flow and space for entertaining or simply basking in the sun. The vast kitchen sits at the heart with 900mm gas cooking, dishwasher and terrific drawer storage all clad in resilient stone and glass. Flanked by a formal split level lounge and dining to one side and a generous family zone to the other. The bedroom wing hosts a well separated master with walk in robe and an urban ensuite furnished with a rainfall shower and floating wood vanity as well as three further bedrooms served by a matching bathroom with soaking tub. This resilient and low maintenance home also features a double garage with internal access, gas ducted heating and RC/AC. Tucked in the Jells Park precinct within strolling distance to the grounds of Wheeler's Hill Library and pond, village shopping, eateries and many quaint parklands dotted in the streets. Also within reach of Brandon Park SC and The Glen, buses, freeway access or schooling at Waverley Meadows PS, Wheelers Hill SC Mazenod College and Caulfield Grammar.
