Situated on a generous 721m² allotment, this home built in 1977 has come to market. This newly renovated two bedroom, one bathroom home provides for a large open-plan living design. This home is guaranteed to be a crowd-pleaser, with its private and secure backyard and low-maintenance design garden. Its magnificent pine walls create a heart-warming feel to the home which contrast the freshly painted walls and ceilings. Complimenting the pine walls, the vintage tile flooring encapsulates the character of the home, with warm tones brought out through the generous natural light created from the floor-to-ceiling windows.

Additional features of this property (to list some):
