10 Acres of Views with Immaculate Gardens and Pasture

Privacy, views, pasture, immaculate gardens and a near new family home on 10 acres. This amazing home has been carefully positioned on the land to take in far reaching views from the north east all the way to the north west. On this encapsulating journey your eyes will see the Huon River, parts of the Wellington Ranges, all the way out to Judbury and the snow-capped hills beyond.

The home has a wonderful floor plan that allows a parents wing, a guest wing, an amazing open plan living area with huge picture windows to take in the view. The master bedroom offers an incredible outlook across the valley and is serviced by an impressive ensuite and generous walk in robe. The three guest rooms all have built in storage and share the beautiful main bathroom.

Access to the large wrap around veranda is seamless from almost every room in the house and every room enjoys wonderful views. The exposed timber beams in the living area allow for an open and spacious feel flooded with light from the large windows. Such a wonderful home with spacious everything, bedrooms, living areas, bathrooms and decks, this is a quality property.

If this is appealing to you, then the 10 acres, comprising of established fenced house yard and open pasture is an added bonus. All with the same amazing views as the house. As you enter the property the tree lined driveway leads you past the three sided barn along to the gate and into the house yard with ample parking, established gardens, and turning circle and up the hill further to the double garage. The whole property is ready to enjoy, with some young plants and bushes as well as older ones, you could add to what's there or just relax and watch your new gardens grow while the world goes on down below.

This property is a wonderful opportunity in a popular, private part of the world, all the hard work is done, come and see, come and enjoy.
