The Headland 1770

Unique Coastal lifestyle Opportunity in 1770

750 Captain Cook Dr presents a rare chance to secure a piece of the tightly held 1770 property market. This stunning home backs onto a national park and offers breathtaking views of Bustard Bay, sweeping panoramas of sandy straits, pristine beaches, and the beauty of Eurimbula National Park.

This amazing renovated solid block home features two bedrooms and a self-contained granny flat, making it perfect for dual income potential. Inside, you'll find a spacious kitchen with water views and an open-plan living room adorned with polished cypress pine floors. There is also significant potential to add an extra level, which would enhance the already spectacular views of the bay.

Downstairs, the property includes a fully enclosed storage area, ample parking accommodates boats and vehicles, adding to the convenience of this unique offering.

This Blue-Chip lifestyle property serving as a perfect platform to enter the 1770 market. Situated in a prime location known as the Gateway to the Southern Great Barrier Reef, first discovered by Lt James Cook in 1770. It is one of only 126 properties on the 1770 headland, surrounded by reserves and national parks.

Additionally, the new 20-berth marina redevelopment, 1770 Beach Hotel, "Tree Bar," and local cafes are just a short walk away. Enjoy a superb climate, excellent offshore fishing, and year-round stinger-free swimming and surfing beaches.
