Set across two 405sqm blocks, this original 1954 Queenslander at 8 Boundary Street offers a rare opportunity to renovate, develop, or create your dream home in the heart of Currumbin Waters. With its timeless character, the property exudes charm and practicality, featuring 3.2m high ceilings, a wrap-around deck to capture the breezes, and loads of storage space under the house. There is even a 2nd toilet & shower underneath the house with external access. If it is an original character home you are looking for in a great location, then don't miss this opportunity. A rare find of 2 x 405sqm blocks joined in the current instance presents multiple options for the savvy buyer (STCA). • Build 2 separate houses and sell them both • Build 2 separate houses and live in 1 and sell the other, • Build 1 house to live in and sell off the other block of land • Would it be possible to gain approval to increase the density zoning and build townhouses on the combined lots. Just a short stroll to the stunning Currumbin Estuary, this property places lifestyle at your doorstep. Enjoy tranquil walks, paddleboarding, or picnics by the water, all within easy reach. The home is also conveniently located near popular cafes, The Pines Elanora, and Currumbin's vibrant village, while offering seamless access to the M1 and Gold Coast Airport. Located within the catchments for Palm Beach Currumbin (PBC) High School and Currumbin State School, this property is ideal for families and investors. Whether you choose to restore its character, demolish and separate the blocks, or build two contemporary homes (STCA), this is an unparalleled opportunity to secure a piece of Currumbin Waters' history and future. Features: • 2 x 405sqm blocks with development potential (STCA). • Original Queenslander built in 1954 with 3.2m ceilings. • Three carpeted bedrooms plus a study. • Wrap-around deck. • Under-house storage with a second toilet and shower. • Double garage and built-in areas under the house. • Short walk to the Currumbin Estuary and close to local amenities. • Catchment for Palm Beach Currumbin High School and Currumbin State School.
