Truly Breath Taking!

This utterly stunning family home on a large block with ocean views is just something else!

Beauty is around every corner with this architecturally designed home, from the magnificent views through to the magnificent established gardens and everything in between!

This home has only ever had one owner and was built for purpose! With five bedrooms and three lounge rooms across the two stories, this home truly lends itself to a larger family who love being outdoors!

Set on just under two stunning acres of meticulously cared for gardens and bushland sits this jaw dropping home that caters to every need, the large shed plus double internal access carport gives ample space for vehicle storage, the open grassed areas and stunning brick walkways beg for little feet to run around enjoying the sunshine and the amazing north facing deck with beautiful sea views is the perfect location to enjoy the warmer months with family!

Several recent upgrades to the home and brought it into the current century which include the home being internally painted, new stone kitchen tops and updated bathrooms.

The timber floors and robes of this gorgeous home are a real eye catcher and have been maintained to a high level over their lifetime which breathes charm and elegance that is sometimes lost in new homes.

The downstairs area is a fantastic attribute and adds a unique ability to house extra family or to draw an income from air bnb, a long term rental or even backpackers.

This home is something that truly needs to be seen to be believed, for more information or to book a private inspection please contact the listing agent Kurt Knowles today!
