Renovation Opportunity in the Heart of Lowood - A Diamond in the Rough!

Located in the desirable heart of Lowood, this property offers endless potential for those looking for a renovation project with great rewards. Perched on a hill, it enjoys refreshing breezes, perfect for those hot summer days.

Step inside to find a spacious home with a large kitchen and a generous lounge room at the center, making it ideal for family gatherings and entertaining. With three bedrooms, the largest provides the perfect opportunity to add a walk-in robe and ensuite – the space is truly abundant!

The front enclosed veranda runs the full length of the home, offering an expansive area to relax or entertain. A rare feature of this property is the outside lift, providing easy access for older or mobility-challenged individuals.

Enjoy beautiful views over the yard from the back deck, a perfect spot to soak in the outdoors. The large yard features established trees and presents the ideal canvas for your personal landscaping vision.

This property has solar panels a great way to save on those bills going into the future.

Under the house, you'll find a small workshop and space for two cars. Plus, the kids can walk to school, and all shops and amenities are within walking distance.

This home is perfect for anyone looking to invest time and effort into a rewarding renovation project. With a little vision, this property can be transformed back to its former glory and become a stunning home.
