Renovated Resort Style Living in Quiet Cul De Sac

Enviably located within easy reach of the beach, shopping and eateries, the laid-back coastal vibe and easy-care lifestyle of this single-level residence's stylish resort-style living and entertaining spaces deliver irresistible family appeal.

Superbly designed and updated for today's modern family, this light-filled beauty showcases new timber floors, newly renovated wet areas, a seamless connection to outdoor spaces and a contemporary style that requires nothing more than to move in and enjoy. Holding a private street presence, this idyllic brick home introduces generous proportions and an incredibly flexible floorplan featuring north-facing living and dining zones with a new shaker-style gourmet kitchen holding centre stage and boasting state of the art appliances, stone benches, a 4m island and built-in coffee/drinks station, making it the ideal partner for everyday living and celebrations alike.

Four generous double bedrooms offer built-in robes, with the private master offering walk-in robe, brand new designer ensuite and complemented by a new family bathroom and a well-equipped laundry hosting wall-hung cabinetry, frameless showers and brushed gold accents. Outdoors, an expansive covered alfresco area provides superior year-round entertaining, whilst the magnesium swimming pool and private, low-maintenance tropical surrounds ensure your time will be spent enjoying the good things in life as you kick back and relax with family and friends. Further highlights include the energy efficiency of 5kW solar panels, ducted air conditioning, a double garage, and additional off-street parking.
