Tranquil Private Setting - Dual Occupancy Potential on 3.98 Ha

Welcome to a remarkable opportunity in the serene countryside of Bullengarook! Nestled amid picturesque landscapes, this spacious ranch-style home offers immense potential for dual occupancy. With renovations required, the property presents an exciting opportunity for those seeking to create their dream home or a lucrative investment opportunity. Embrace the tranquillity of rural living while capitalizing on the vast potential of this property in a highly sought-after location.

Set on a generous 3.98 Ha, this property boasts ample space for further development. Unlock the full potential of this property by exploring dual occupancy possibilities. You can design two separate living spaces to accommodate extended family members, generate rental income, or even create a home-office setup. With a solid foundation in place, it's time to unleash your creative vision and bring this gem to life.

Accommodation offers six bedrooms, two bathrooms, multiple living spaces, an open-plan central kitchen/meals area, and a separate study space. The bedrooms have been freshly painted and feature brand-new carpets, providing a refreshed canvas for your personal touch. Additional shedding on the property provides valuable storage space for tools, equipment, or potential workshop areas. The presence of a beautiful dam on the property not only adds to the scenic charm but also enhances the property's appeal.

Embrace the potential, unleash your creativity, and seize the opportunity to craft a truly unique living space in this sought-after countryside haven.
