Meticulously renovated throughout - Overlooking a reserve

A stunning fully renovated home from top to bottom that highlights all you may desire for comfortable modern day living. This solidly built property overlooks a reserve - a perfect playground for children and or pets.

The home offers three generous size bedrooms, with the master bedroom featuring a walk-in wardrobe and a quality ensuite with a frameless shower and bathtub. The centrally located main bathroom easily services the other two bedrooms and doubles as an incorporated laundry for added convenience.

The modern and up-to-date kitchen overlooks the lounge and dining area and boasts stone benchtops, a breakfast bar with waterfall edges, and quality stainless steel appliances including a Smeg 6 burner cooktop. The main living areas feature floating timber floors, while the bedrooms have quality carpets for added comfort.

Outside, the property offers fully fenced and landscaped spacious yet low maintenance gardens, including an undercover entertaining area with timber decking, a designated bonfire area, garden shed, and secure undercover off-street parking for 2 vehicles.

Other features include ducted reverse cycle air conditioning for all year-round comfort plus a security alarm for that added peace of mind.

Conveniently located close to all amenities, including a short drive to West Lakes shopping centre, public transport, local shops, and the beach, this property offers great value for first homebuyers, investors, or those looking to simply move in and relax with everything already done for them. Don't miss out on this fantastic opportunity!
