Green-living at Terrace Green in the heart of White Gum Valley

Finally, a home that's not an apartment yet delivers the easy-care lifestyle you've been craving.

This well-considered, architecturally designed terrace home is the perfect right-sizer for singles, couples and early retirees with generous pet-friendly courtyard and breezy open-plan living areas.

Appealing returns for investors are also on offer here.

Located amongst mature trees near the Fremantle Golf Course, Fremantle is just a 10 minute cycle away.

For a 5% deposit, now is the perfect time to take advantage of a generous government grant (where applicable) and secure an enviro-friendly home or investment at 'todays' prices in a rising market.

Please note: all images are artists impressions. Terrace Green is currently under construction with Stage 1 due for completion in April 2022
