Garden Oasis

In a quiet, tightly-held cul-de-sac in the heart of Burradoo, lies this charming brick home. On just under half an acre (1,997sqm), an established native garden surrounds this residence, creating a private atmosphere and the perfect space to live your idyllic Southern Highlands life.

At the front of the home lies a welcoming living area with gas fireplace and large windows to enjoy the garden. The kitchen enjoys amazing natural light, gas cooktop, double sink, pantry and a slow combustion fireplace which also heats the dining and secondary living area. Access to the covered alfresco is via sliding doors off the dining area, where summer gatherings can be enjoyed while being surrounded by the beautiful gardens.

The master bedroom oozes calm with garden views, walk-in wardrobe and ensuite. Located away from the other bedrooms, it is a real retreat. The secondary bedrooms both contain built-in wardrobes, with the third being a double bedroom (potential to create two) with its own split system. The main bathroom boasts a shower, bath, vanity and separate toilet.

For added convenience there is a three-car garage also with its own split system, an internal laundry with external access, and heating and cooling throughout the home.
