Perfect for a Downsized Life in Style

Nestled on 948 sqm of land just minutes from Crookwell's main street, this charming two-bedroom, two-bathroom cottage has been tastefully renovated to capture both style and comfort. The living room, featuring a cozy wood fireplace and reverse-cycle air conditioning, flows seamlessly to the dining room, which also boasts a wood fire, ensuring warmth and ambiance throughout the home. The fully insulated studio, complete with reverse-cycle air conditioning, offers flexibility for a home office, guest space, or creative retreat.

The spacious kitchen is designed for practical living, providing abundant storage alongside a gas cooktop and oven. The main bedroom offers a built in robe, while the second bedroom includes a private ensuite for added convenience. Outside, a larger undercover patio presents an inviting space for alfresco dining or entertaining in the fresh country air.

With a double carport, this cottage is ideal for those looking to downsize without compromising on quality. Positioned for easy access to local amenities, 90 Laggan Road offers a wonderful blend of character and modern ease, perfect for a peaceful lifestyle in Crookwell.
