Position Meets Potential

Nestled in a community-oriented Thornbury enclave, this delightful, two/three bedroom, one-bathroom Californian Bungalow is set on a generous 368m² (approx.) and presents exciting possibilities for a brand-new chapter. Anchored by its period beauty and first-class convenience, a golden canvas welcomes homeowners/renovators looking to tailor a family home to suit their personal lifestyle and needs (STCA), all within a lively and well-connected community.

- From the curb, a charming picket fence encases a free-standing, weatherboard jewel filled with beauty and appeal
 - Inside, a single-level layout showcases lofty ceilings, decorative rosettes and ornamental fireplaces
 - Two well-proportioned bedrooms provide privacy and peaceful retreat
 - Spacious living room creates a cosy haven by the heater as it seamlessly merges with a flexible study/dining area and central kitchen
 - Functional kitchen adorns freestanding cooking facilities and overlooks a deep, grassed backyard offering ample scope for a dream renovation/extension project (STCA)
 - Additional features include one original bathroom, laundry room and separate toilet
- Situated in the heart of Thornbury surrounded by bike tracks, parklands, scenic Merri Creek trails, shopping and eclectic dining, Miller Street Village, Bell Primary School and St Georges Road tram routes linking you with Melbourne's CBD.
