This beautifully renovated solid brick two-storey home offers a perfect blend of comfort, style, and functionality. The light-filled open-plan kitchen, living, and dining areas flow seamlessly, offering a modern space for both family living and entertaining. A separate lounge room provides an additional, more intimate space for relaxation. The home features three generously sized bedrooms, each with built-in robes. The master suite is a standout. Oversized and complete with an ensuite, the private balcony offers stunning elevated views over a sweeping canopy. Comfort is assured with reverse cycle heating and a wood fireplace for cozy winter nights. Downstairs, you'll find a large rumpus room ideal for family activities or additional living space, along with a practical laundry. The single garage provides secure parking and storage, completing this family-friendly home. With its impressive features, fantastic location, and ample space, this property offers everything you need for modern living. Be quick to secure this stunning home!
