Substantial Home & Unit in a Superb Position with Lovely Views

Set on a sprawling 6.27-acre parcel of gently undulating land, this property offers an exceptional opportunity to enjoy space, privacy, and stunning district and mountain views, all just moments from Berry and its array of amenities.

The substantial home features three well-proportioned bedrooms upstairs, including a master suite with a generously sized dressing room and ensuite. The family bathroom includes a separate shower and bathtub for added convenience.

Among the property's standout features are the expansive living spaces and a chef's kitchen with gas cooking, ideal for hosting family gatherings. These areas flow seamlessly to the outdoor entertainer's terrace, where you can unwind while taking in the panoramic views of the lush, undulating landscape and distant mountains.

A self-contained unit on the lower level adds versatility, making it perfect for rental accommodation for additional income, inter-generational living, a home office, or a creative retreat.

An in-ground magnesium pool enhances the lifestyle appeal, offering a low-maintenance, therapeutic oasis. The property also boasts extensive triple-bay shedding, perfect for storage, hobbies, or future projects, added convenience with a remote electric roller door.

Established gardens and fruit trees surround the home, creating a delightful setting with plenty of potential for further enhancement and personalisation.

With undercover parking and endless possibilities to make it your own, this property is perfectly positioned for those seeking a lifestyle of convenience and opportunity. Don't miss the chance to secure your slice of tranquil country living near the vibrant heart of Berry, where rolling green hills and stunning views are part of everyday life.
