A Stunning Surprise.

Nestled at the rear of a dual-occ and boasting gorgeous living spaces and a well-thought out floorplan, this Tudor-inspired three bedroom home is a true family sanctuary, secluded away from the busy-ness of life, with indoor and outdoor spaces inviting you to relax and enjoy. The open plan living and meals domain is anchored by a stunning white kitchen, a stone-wrapped breakfast bench offering casual dining, and a full suite of stainless steel appliances is ready for the home chef. A raised alfresco deck off the meals area sets the scene for summer entertaining in the manicured, low maintenance rear yard. Two robed bedrooms are set at ground level including the master with access to the two-way main bathroom, which offers a separate shower and bathtub, and a teenage retreat set upstairs hosts a third bedroom, study nook and bathroom. A wood heater, split systems and ceiling fans keep the spaces comfortable year-round, there's a full size laundry with yard access, plus the lock-up carport provides drive-through access to the rear. Positioned walking distance from ATC Cook Reserve and the Western Ring walking paths, the location offers easy access to local shops, central Glenroy, public transport and schools, with Melbourne's CBD only 14km away.
