At 920 acres - it's almost big enough to get lost

Escape to your own piece of paradise at 68 Banyabba Railway Station Road, a sprawling 920-acre property that beautifully blends modern living with rural charm. Located just 30 minutes from Grafton, this stunning estate is the perfect sanctuary for those seeking a tranquil lifestyle.

This contemporary three-bedroom home, built in 2019, features high ceilings and fans in each spacious bedroom, ensuring comfort year-round. The generous kitchen boasts gorgeous timber cabinets and sleek stone benchtops, ideal for culinary enthusiasts and entertaining guests. A separate large guest accommodation shed provides privacy and comfort for visitors, making it an excellent space for family and friends.

The property also includes a large machinery shed, offering ample space for equipment storage and ensuring you have everything you need for land management and agricultural activities. With two dams and direct access to the Broadwater, leading to the Clarence River, you'll enjoy opportunities for fishing, kayaking, or simply basking in nature.

A flourishing orchard featuring guava, apples, plums, pomegranates, pecans, garlic, mangoes, and peaches allows you to cultivate your own food, embracing the joys of sustainable living and farm-to-table dining. With three large water tanks and both mains and standalone power, this property is perfectly equipped to support a self-sufficient lifestyle.

Immerse yourself in the serenity of country living while enjoying all the modern conveniences this property offers. Whether you're looking for a peaceful retreat or a working farm, this estate presents endless opportunities.
