Absoulte Beach Front Living

An absolute beachfront home in the tightly held coastal town of Point Turton - opportunities like this are truly rare.

With the beach literally at your front door, it's hard to imagine anything more desirable.

The home features three generously sized bedrooms, with one offering beautiful sea views. The spacious open-plan living and dining area is filled with natural light, thanks to a large bay window that frames stunning sea views. The kitchen is both functional and light, with ample storage, an electric cooktop and oven, and another large window that allows you to enjoy the light and coastal views.

The main bathroom includes a shower, two separate vanities, and a separate toilet for convenience. Outside, the low-maintenance garden complements the relaxed coastal lifestyle, while the high-clearance double garage with concrete floor and power offers plenty of space for vehicles and additional storage. The home is supplied with rainwater.

A lovely front verandah invites you to sit back, relax, and take in the breathtaking sea views that are essentially your front yard.

This home is truly special - a rare chance to own a slice of beachfront paradise in one of South Australia's most sought-after coastal locations.
