$352,000

Situated in a master planned Creekstone estate with all the amenities and conveniences, this 365 SQM block close to a 12-hectare sports reserve offering football, cricket, netball, tennis facilities, BBQ, pavilion & many other activities, just like your big front yard where kids can play, jump, run freely. Living here you will walk to Tarneit station once all road works are completed, bus station is right opposite to land and travel to and back from the CBD in just half an hour, without worrying about your commuter car parking space at the station during peak hours. Tarneit gardens and Tarneit central shopping centre, medical centre, and Tarneit P-9 college all are within minutes driving distance. The future proposed Tarneit town centre near the station and the proposed government and private schools across the road will complement the community and your investment for a long time.
