Rural Escape

If you're looking for a change of scenery, your chance to go bush and live that rural dream is here with 10 hectares (24.7 acres) nestled within Nymboida.

This is your opportunity to secure the rural lifestyle property you have been waiting for with very conservative price expectations. Enjoy the convenience here with infrastructure already in place. This includes a large dam and small pond, four rain water storage tanks, a shed with cement flooring, a large garden shed, lockup storage cage, a septic system, a new solar system with 14 solar panels and a generator for backup if needed.

These acreage lifestyle blocks are in demand and are getting harder to come by so if you are looking for a quiet rural lifestyle property then don't delay in booking your inspection.
