Peaceful Acreage in the Heart of Town

Establish your dream home with country views on this private and picturesque Taradale acreage. Gently undulating, the 2-hectare property also overlooks the historic church, giving it a sense of place in Taradale's old gold beginnings.

Boundary fencing is already in place and the current vendors have set about regenerating the land with young plantings down the northern side, also guaranteeing your future privacy and a creating shelter belt.

The property features a large dam and lush green pastures await some stock or horses. There are some beautiful flat yet elevated, cleared sites awaiting your grand design.

This special address is just 700 metres from the Taradale Mineral Springs Reserve with a great playground and enjoys easy access to the Calder Freeway.
