Ocean Views and Coastal Vibes - Build Your Dream Here

Seize the opportunity to capture stunning sea views with a two-storey development on this prime corner allotment of approximately 686m². With power and Telstra services readily available on the street, starting your build has never been easier. Located just a short stroll from direct beach access, this block is perfectly positioned for coastal living.

With stamp duty now abolished in South Australia for first home builders, there's never been a better time to secure land and build your dream home while saving thousands.

Whether you're planning your first home or downsizing for a simpler lifestyle, this allotment offers the perfect blend of beachside charm and convenience.

Don't miss your chance to own a slice of Kingston's most desirable areas.
