This large building block on dead flat land is a great opportunity for a new home builder in a brilliant location!

Set on just under 900m² and located perfectly between Penguin and Burnie sits this amazing property, serviced by all the standard town utilities including power, stormwater, sewer, water and internet.

The property sits approx. 150m to the ocean and also behind the Highway Holt which offers general groceries and takeaway food options.

The property has council approved plans for a larger home which will come with the purchase of the property, this has the potential to save the purchaser thousands of dollars in fees and months in building delays.

This new subdivision is a stunning location for your forever home and is surrounded by stunning brand-new builds.
