LAST BLOCK in this Premium Cul-de sac in Milton

Surrounded by some of Milton's premium homes is this last vacant block in this sought after cul -de -sac, at Milton's Cork's Hill Estate. No need to guess what standard of homes your neighbour's will build - they are all established stand out properties!

This block has a special feature of having a reserve next to it with a protected established Moreton Bay Fig tree - one of only a few in Milton's parks or reserves.

With a generous size of 932m², this gives you the room to design and build your forever home to overlook Milton's stunning rural vistas and Milton's heritage village township.

Walking distance to Milton's fabulous cafes, restaurants, local pubs and the beautifully restored iconic theatre in the main street.
