Large, Elevated Vacant Lots

In a tranquil, distinctive, and raised location, a select offering of just four fully serviced freehold lots have just been created and are now available.

In the heart of the original Ocean Shores township and hidden along a secluded driveway, the land unfolds like a park, surrounded by a border of majestic mature native trees that immediately create a connection to the land. Each lot is elevated, with a north-facing slope ideal for solar passive design, offering scenic outlooks and cool ocean breezes.

Positioned away from any road noise and just a short distance from parks, shops, and the beach. With expansive lot sizes, broad frontages, and well-established planting zones, this unique area is set to remain a tranquil haven for fortunate homeowners both now and in the future.

Agent's interest is declared, and further details can be requested by reaching out to the team from Chincogan Real Estate.
