A Quieter Pace of Life

The name Correa refers to a native Australian shrub that boasts sweet, tubular flowers and their ability to attract wildlife, and here at Lot 7, 6a Correa Street, you will find the cutest little friends right at your doorstep.

A beautiful parcel of land of a little over 1 hectare, this mostly cleared block boasts spectacular views and depending on where you may choose to build, the option of river, ocean and mountain view are available, and in my favourite spot, you can get all three.

Whether it's your forever home, a summer shack or something in between, subject to council approval, all that stands between you and a life at the beach is your imagination and a good builder.

Primrose Sands is a beautiful, beachside suburb that is home to a lovely community that enjoys a laidback lifestyle, where a swim at the beach, a walk with the dog or casting a line in the hope of catching dinner, ranks pretty high on the priorities list.

So, if you are looking for a quieter pace of life, where the summer days are long and the beach visits many, then call me, Donna of Homelands Property today, I'd love to show around.

This block is zoned Low Density Residential and is being offered subject to issue of title.
