Please be aware that we will address all offers on the Monday following the open inspections.

Thank you for your understanding during the festive season.

Ideally situated in an outstanding location, this property is set on a huge 1,030m² approx allotment, and presents endless opportunities!

Yes, the property has an easement, but don't let that deter you from the incredible potential that this property represents. There is still ample land to work with, perhaps build your dream home to take in the stunning views from this great location (STPC).

The house itself is a knock down and what you see is what you get.

This is an incredible chance to buy in a location that offers everything you need, with quality schools, shopping and transport only minutes away.
