"Treetops" - Escape to your own Mountain Retreat

Nestled high among the treetops, this charming mountain home offers both privacy and breathtaking views, with all the main living areas thoughtfully designed around spacious rear decks. It's the perfect antidote to the monotony of city life, ideal for those craving a true 'tree change.' Just a short stroll from the vibrant Gallery Walk, where you can enjoy your morning coffee and croissant, and embrace the peaceful mountain lifestyle.

Property Features:

- Western Red Cedar Pole Home, built circa 1990 and recently refreshed for modern comfort
- Light-filled open-plan living area with a cozy wood stove and air-conditioning, keeping you comfortable year-round
- Stylish modern kitchen, overlooking the expansive rear deck, complete with a dishwasher
- Two guest bedrooms, each with built-in robes
- Master retreat offering a private office or sitting area, with direct access to the brand-new two-way bathroom
- Freshly renovated two-way bathroom with a separate toilet
- Large, insulated rear deck with beautiful views over the garden and into the treetops
- Terraced gardens with stunning new rock retaining walls, perfect for nature lovers
- Garden shed for tools, plus a chicken coop or shade house for your veggie garden
- Concrete driveway with carport, offering easy flat access into the home
- Additional off-road parking on the next level for up to three vehicles
- On the school bus route and just a step away from the Botanic Gardens

Escape the hustle and bustle of city life to the serenity of Tamborine Mountain, where working from home is a breeze, and living among the trees rejuvenates the body, mind, and soul.
