Uninterrupted Views!

2b Church Street is a generously-sized residential block nestled in a quiet, no-through street with little traffic. Its elevated position provides sweeping mountain views, presenting an excellent opportunity to construct your dream home. Covering 2023 sqm, this spacious plot allows ample room for additional structures or any extras you might envision. Strategically located under 2km from Quirindi's main street, the property benefits from all available town services. Quirindi is an exceptional country town, offering a wealth of services including shopping, aged care, childcare, hospitality, healthcare facilities, and both primary and secondary education. Daily train service to Sydney and daily bus service to Tamworth further enhance accessibility. Embrace the serenity and convenience this land offers—it's a prime location at a competitive price for a remarkable piece of land.
