Fancy A Lifestyle Change? - 5 Acres (Approx.)

The perfect lifestyle property but not in the middle of nowhere.

This brick veneer 3 bedroom plus study (or 4th bedroom) is positioned high on the hill overlooking the 5 acres (approx.) of beautiful lush grounds. Ideal for the horse family, sheep paddocks or just to escape the hustle and bustle of regular life.

Recently partially renovated with new flooring and painting updates, this family home features a master suit with built in robes and ensuite. The other bedrooms have built-ins and the large study is perfect for working from home or converting to another bedroom. All of these rooms overlook the front paddocks, great to see the livestock first thing in the morning.

The large country kitchen/meals area is central to the home, with access to the formal lounge with open fire place and dining area. Plenty of storage space throughout the home as you'd expect. The huge family room with coonara fireplace and split system is is great for the family catch up and relax in the evening.

Outside there is the undercover car spaces plus alfresco area, numerous out buildings and good fencing and gates throughout.

This affordable property will not last, register your interest ASAP.
