Serenity and tranquillity with sweeping views!!!

This irreplaceable allotment is available for the first time in decades. With exceptional views, outstanding privacy, permanent water supply and easy access this rare opportunity to acquire space and seclusion is available now through Right Choice Real Estate.

This 40 acre, 16.38ha original allotment dates back to the earliest days of settlement of the Albion Park area with close proximity to the historic Butter Track down the escarpment. A combination of cleared pasture and natural woodland on this undulating C3 zoned parcel provide an idyllic combination of space and tranquillity.

A number of established improvements exist with potential for more. The perfect weekender with space to relax and play, including a number of tracks and trails, and a feeling of space and peace beyond its generous size.

Please note road access and inspection by appointment only: contact us today.
