Historic Richmond at your feet

This special property is just minutes from the historic Richmond village. The approach is on the old Brinktop Road that goes passed the Brinktop bush land reserve. It is a no through road ensuring quiet and privacy.

Access to the peak of this property is steep but the views over the southern region are unrivaled. Mount Wellington, Barilla Bay and Pittwater, the Coal River Valley, and Richmond can all be clearly seen from a property the likes of which are rarely available.

Zoned rural, the property has power close by and has several wonderful house sites STCA to take full advantage of the vistas available.

Open pasture is interspersed with stands of Tasmanian Blue Gum that provide shelter to the property and habitat for wildlife, and firewood can be sourced from the forest.

A well priced property with so much to offer. A perfect canvas to build a home in a spectacular location without being isolated.
