Charming Three-Bedroom Terrace in a Prime Waterloo Location

This beautifully presented terrace from the late 1800s offers a superb low-maintenance lifestyle and immediate appeal. Set in an unbeatable position, it features a spacious two-level layout with well-proportioned rooms, stylish modern updates, and seamless access to a private outdoor space ideal for entertaining.

Perfectly located across from Waterloo Oval and just a short walk to the vibrant Danks Street café and dining scene, this home is also within easy reach of the Sydney CBD, local schools, shopping areas, and a variety of public transport options.

Property Highlights:

- Practical floorplan with a spacious open-plan living and dining area on the lower level
- Exposed brick accents, polished timber floors, and decorative fireplaces
- Private outdoor courtyard for entertaining, with secure parking via the rear lane
- Three bedrooms, two with built-in wardrobes, plus a large attic-level storage room and home office/study
- Modern fully renovated kitchen, equipped with electric cooking, marble benchtop and high-end appliances
- Stylishly renovated bathroom/laundry featuring an integrated shower/bath
- New 4-way split system Aircon through all 3 levels of the house
- Upgraded hot water system to cater for a larger family + new automatic garage door system recently installed
- Brand new Metro station a 12-minute walk, with bus stops to the city right at your doorstep
- Elevated position offering leafy views over Waterloo Oval
- Immaculately maintained with potential for further updates to enhance style and appeal
