Facing north to capture an abundance of natural sunlight, master craftsmanship and the latest in fashionable design make this just-completed family residence a dream acquisition. Established in the tightly held Mount Waverley Secondary College zone, appreciate the privacy of a separate driveway to the double auto garage which seamlessly flows inside to a fabulous combination of high ceilings and contemporary floorboards. Relax easily in one of the three spacious living zones, from the lovely street-facing lounge and the upstairs tree-top retreat to the rear open-plan living/dining room, spilling out via tri-slide glazing to a decked alfresco courtyard. Cook with pleasure in the high-end Bosch kitchen featuring a walk-in pantry and exquisite stone island. With a total of four bedrooms and three bathrooms, all the bedrooms feature a walk-in robe. Accommodate guests in the ground floor bedroom featuring a fully-tiled ensuite with brass tapware and replenish after a long day in the master bedroom with a wet-area shower and free-standing bath. Near primary schools and Wesley College, stroll around the corner to Burwood Heights Shopping Centre, Burwood Brickworks and the city-bound tram to Deakin University and Presbyterian Ladies' College. - Brand new family design with three spacious living zones - Zoned for Mount Waverley Secondary College - At the front of three - Double glazing - Powder room - Split system air-conditioners in every room - Double auto garage with internal entry
