

12/605-611 Pittwater Road, Dee Why, NSW 2099

UPSTATE  100 YEARS YOUNG 1920-2020

Townhouse For Sale

Wednesday, 8 January 2025

12/605-611 Pittwater Road, Dee Why, NSW 2099

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 2

Area: 285 m2

Type: Townhouse

Contact Agent

House-like in proportion and appeal, this extraordinary townhome is peacefully tucked away above a private cul-de-sac a short stroll from the pulsing heart of Dee Why Town Centre. A sleek showcase of innovative spit-level contemporary design optimising an effortless sense of space, light and flow with two separate living spaces, a deluxe main bedroom suite with extensive district views, plus an entertainers' terrace and near-level lawn bathed in northerly sunshine. An idyllic sanctuary for executives, empty-nesters or families, it is only a couple of minutes stroll to Dee Why Grand and a short wander to shopping, supermarkets, eateries and B-Line city buses.

- Peacefully set to the rear of an immaculately maintained contemporary complex
- Sweeping light-filled living and dining space housed under soaring ceilings
- Glass sliders open to sunlit northerly terrace and private enclosed near level lawn
- Sleek kitchen with a four-seat stone island bench, gas cooktop and dishwasher
- A second living area upstairs with a study alcove provides a sense of separation
- King-size bedrooms with built-ins, main with ensuite and sweeping northerly vistas
- Stylish contemporary bathrooms, powder room, internal laundry, plenty of storage
- Engineered timber flooring, plantation shutters, air conditioning and gas outlets
- Easy cul-de-sac access via Moorilla Street, walking distance to Dee Why Beach
- Automatic double garage plus off-street parking