With rare street frontage along Benhiam Street, this modern townhouse enjoys a peaceful position while remaining conveniently close to local amenities. The rendered and timber-clad exterior is framed by flourishing gardens, offering a picturesque first impression. Part of a managed complex, it includes access to a sparkling in-ground pool, perfect for summer days, with a low body corporate fee of around $70 per week. Driveway parking and a single garage add practicality without compromising style.

Beyond the entry, the spacious open-plan lounge and dining area features glistening tiles and downlights that create a luminous and welcoming setting. This air-conditioned space seamlessly connects to the stylish corner kitchen, offering a generous dining bar for casual meals or entertaining.

The trendy, bright kitchen is a highlight of the home, featuring gleaming stone counters, a chic tinted glass splashback, plenty of glossy cabinetry, a big pantry, and a dishwasher, making it a delightful hub for preparing meals and gathering with loved ones.

The fully fenced and beautifully landscaped courtyard offers low-maintenance gardens and an open-air terrace, perfect for hosting intimate gatherings or simply enjoying peaceful outdoor moments.

Upstairs, three large bedrooms feature sleek bamboo floors and ceiling fans. The master bedroom includes an air conditioner, walk-in robe, and modern ensuite, while the second bedroom also boasts a walk-in robe, and the third offers a built-in sliding robe. A pristine shared bathroom is fitted with a shower, bathtub, and separate water closet for added convenience.
