If you've ever dreamed of living in a historic home in a central location, this is your opportunity! Situated in a prime area of Launceston, This charming one-bedroom townhouse offers easy access to parks, public transport, the Launceston General Hospital, and a variety of bars and restaurants, all within a short walk. The property is part of a converted terrace house with three flats, and this one-bedroom flat is located on the ground floor with a large spacious lounge and modern kitchen. A private courtyard perfect for entertaining guests. Not pet-friendly. A 12-month lease is preferred.
