Undeniable Sophistication

Discover this exquisite four-bedroom townhouse that embodies modern luxury and comfort. Bathed in natural light, the sun-soaked living areas create an inviting atmosphere perfect for relaxation and entertaining. Located in a sought-after St Leonards spot, you'll enjoy panoramic ocean views from the first floor, stretching all the way from Sorrento on the Mornington Peninsula.

The spacious open-plan living and dining area is designed with gatherings in mind. The gourmet kitchen features elegant marble-look stone benches, a generous island, and chic black fixtures, providing both style and practicality. With ample storage, including a walk-in pantry and a convenient powder room, every detail has been considered. The bottom floor also contains a versatile bedroom which includes walk in robe and ensuite.

On the upper level, a flexible second living area extends to a spacious tiled balcony, providing breathtaking views of the bay. The inviting master suite acts as a tranquil sanctuary, featuring floor-to-ceiling windows, a generous walk-in robe, and a luxurious ensuite adorned with sophisticated tiles and chic brass accents. The additional two bedrooms on this floor include a walk-in robe and mirror robes.
