House-size comfort in the heart of The Junction, moments to beach

Step inside this dual level townhouse, where space and style come together to create something truly special. Offering house-sized proportions and an effortless flow, this rare gem features two beautifully renovated bathrooms, a sun-drenched north-facing courtyard for alfresco entertaining, and the bonus of a double garage, a luxury in this neck of the woods. Positioned in the exclusive 'Tuscany' complex of just six residences, this home is a private sanctuary in the heart of Newcastle's most vibrant locale. Opposite Rowlands Park and just 250m from the buzz of The Junction, the location combines serenity with unmatched convenience.

The smart layout includes a welcoming lounge that spills into a private front courtyard, while the open-plan dining and kitchen area connects seamlessly to the rear, your ideal setting for relaxed gatherings or quiet mornings with coffee in hand. Upstairs, the master retreat impresses with its ensuite, walk-in robe, and lofty 9ft ceiling, adding an extra touch of space.

Living here means having everything you need within reach. From the popular eateries, and boutique shops of The Junction to the golden sands of the beach just five minutes away, your coastal lifestyle begins the moment you walk out the door.
