This street-facing two-bedroom brick veneer villa offers an ideal opportunity for renters looking for a property in a highly sought-after location. With easy access to schools, TAFE Chisholm Institute and Dandenong's bustling medical precinct, this home is considerable for those seeking convenience. The iconic Dandenong Markets, Dandenong Square Shopping Centre and Apex Park are all within walking distance, while the 901 bus stop is just 100m away. The home features a covered car space and easy-maintenance gardens, along with sun blinds and a security screen entry door for added peace of mind. Inside, high ceilings with ornate cornices create a sense of space, while timber hardwood flooring runs throughout. The living room features a wall heater, timber panel feature wall and brass pendant lighting, while sheer curtains allow natural light to filter through, creating a warm ambiance. The timber and laminate kitchen includes ample storage space, a stainless-steel sink with spindle tapware, plus a freestanding electric oven and gas burner cooktop. A handy servery shelf makes entertaining easy. Both bedrooms are well-sized, featuring timber flooring and built-in robe storage. The main bedroom is air-conditioned for comfort. The well-sized bathroom and laundry are equipped with high wall tiles and a semi-frameless shower. Outside, a private paved courtyard offers a low-maintenance outdoor space for relaxing. An external storage shed provides additional practicality.
