Quiet, Over-Sized & Stylish With Amazing Convenience

There is so much to love about this brilliant apartment that promises surprising tranquillity and natural beauty in an amazing location. On the top floor of the low-rise security block, it has been extensively updated, presenting over-sized interiors finished with luxe engineered flooring and a near new designer bathroom. Sweeping living and dining spaces spill out to the generous north facing balcony overlooking the gorgeous tropical gardens that make it feel like a green sanctuary. The European stone kitchen is another highlight, along with the generous master retreat and building access security car space. Nestled at the quiet back of the block, well away from Pacific Highway, the benefit of its address is immense. It's a mere 350m to Roseville Station and village, footsteps to the bus, within walking distance of Chatswood's shopping and dining hub.
