Bright and private in a prime Lindisfarne location

Situated just minutes walk from Lindisfarne Village, this well-built unit at 2/4 Raminea Road enjoys a fantastic location with ideal orientation for all-day sun. Set in a peaceful and private position, the home features a well-designed open-plan layout that maximises space and offers a comfortable, easy flow throughout. Close to local shops and amenities, it's perfect for first-home buyers, downsizers, or investors seeking a prime opportunity.

Inside, the living area is a serene retreat, tucked away from the street and neighbouring units. Bathed in natural light, the spacious living and kitchen area feels bright and inviting. The kitchen is thoughtfully designed and well-maintained, with ample storage and generous countertop space that makes everyday cooking and dining a breeze.

This property includes a spacious bedroom with a walk-in robe, serviced by a neat bathroom, separate toilet, and convenient laundry facilities that lead out to the clothesline. The large, secure garage is a standout feature, offering ample potential for storage, a workshop, or even a future conversion. With nearby shops, cafes, healthcare, parks, and walking trails, this home combines comfort and convenience in a highly sought-after location.
