New to the market in the very popular suburb of Riverside, this two bedroom, two bathroom unit would be perfect for a couple looking to downsize, or for people looking to get their first foot in to the property market. With stunning views of the Tamar looking down towards Tamar Island that can be seen from your own, private, wrap around deck. With heaps of parking, with two internal and external parking spaces, as well as visitor parking, this unit is great for people who often have friends and relatives visiting. The garden is also extremely low maintenance and under the home you have a large work shop area.
